Notice of Occupancy Rights under the Violence Against Women Act¹

TO ALL TENANTS AND APPLICANTS

The Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) provides protections for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. VAWA protections are not only available to women, but are available equally to all individuals regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.² The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) is the Federal agency that oversees that the Section 8 Assistance Program or the HOME Investment Partnerships Program are in compliance with VAWA. This notice explains your rights under VAWA. A HUD-approved certification form is attached to this notice. You can fill out this form to show that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and that you wish to use your rights under VAWA.

PROTECTIONS FOR APPLICANTS

If you otherwise qualify for assistance under the Section 8 Assistance Program or the HOME Investment Partnerships Program, you cannot be denied admission or denied assistance because you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

PROTECTION FOR TENANTS

If you are receiving assistance under the Section 8 Assistance Program or the HOME Investment Partnerships Program, you may not be denied assistance, terminated from participation, or be evicted from your rental housing because you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

Also, if you or an affiliated individual of yours is or has been the victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking by a member of your household or any guest, you may not be denied rental assistance or occupancy rights under the Section 8 Assistance Program or the HOME Investment Partnerships Program solely on the basis of criminal activity directly relating to that domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault or stalking.

² Housing providers cannot discriminate on the basis of any protected characteristic, including race, color, national origin, religion, sex, familial status, disability, or age. HUD-assisted and HUD-insured housing must be made available to all otherwise eligible individuals regardless of actual or perceived sexual orientation, gender identity, or marital status.

Affiliated individual means your spouse, parent, brother, sister, or child, or a person to whom you stand in the place of a parent or guardian (for example, the affiliated individual is in your care, custody, or control); or any individual, tenant, or lawful occupancy living in your household.

REMOVING THE ABUSER OR PERPETRATOR FROM THE HOUSEHOLD

Alliance Asset Management, Inc. may divide (bifurcate) your lease in order to evict the individual or terminate the assistance of the individual who has engaged in criminal activity (the abuser or perpetrator) directly relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

If Alliance Asset Management, Inc. chooses to remove the abuser or perpetrator, Alliance Asset Management, Inc. may not take away the rights of eligible tenants to the unit or otherwise punish the remaining tenants. If the evicted abuser or perpetrator was the sole tenant to have established eligibility for assistance under the program, Alliance Asset Management, Inc. must allow the tenant who is or has been a victim and other household members to remain in the unit for a period of time, in order to establish eligibility under the program or under another HUD housing program covered by VAWA, or, find alternative housing.

In removing the abuser or perpetrator from the household, Alliance Asset Management, Inc. must follow Federal, State, and local eviction procedures. In order to divide a lease, Alliance Asset Management, Inc. may, but is not required to, ask you for documentation or certification of the incidences of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

MOVING TO ANOTHER UNIT

Upon your request, Alliance Asset Management, Inc. may permit you to move to another unit, subject to availability of other units, and still keep your assistance. In order to approve a request, Alliance Asset Management, Inc. may ask you to provide documentation that you are requesting to move because of an incidence of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If the request is a request for emergency transfer, Alliance Asset Management, Inc. may ask you to submit a written request or fill out a form where you certify that you meet the criteria for an emergency transfer under VAWA. The criteria are:

1. You are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. If Alliance Asset Management, Inc. does not already have documentation that you are a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, they may ask you for such documentation, as described in the documentation section below.
2. You expressly request the emergency transfer. Alliance Asset Management, Inc. may choose to require that you submit a form, or may accept another written or oral request.
3. You reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your current unit. This means you have a reason to fear that if you do not receive a transfer you would suffer violence in the very near future. OR You are a victim of sexual assault and the assault occurred on the premises during the 90-calendar-day period before you request a transfer. If you are a victim of sexual assault, then in addition to qualifying for an emergency transfer because you reasonably believe you are threatened with imminent harm from further violence if you remain in your unit, you may qualify for an emergency transfer if the sexual assault occurred on the premises of the property from which you are seeking your transfer, and that assault happened within the 90-calendar-day period before you expressly request the transfer.

Alliance Asset Management, Inc. will keep confidential requests for emergency transfers by victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and the location of any move by such victims and their families.

Alliance Asset Management, Inc.'s emergency transfer plan provides further information on emergency transfers, and Alliance Asset Management, Inc. must make a copy of its emergency transfer plan available to you if you ask to see it.

DOCUMENTING YOU ARE OR HAVE BEEN A VICTIM OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE, DATING VIOLENCE, SEXUAL ASSAULT OR STALKING

Alliance Asset Management, Inc. can, but is not required to, ask you to provide documentation to “certify” that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Such request from Alliance Asset Management, Inc. must be in writing, and they must give you at least 14 business days (Saturdays, Sundays, and Federal holidays do not count) from the day you receive the request to provide the documentation. Alliance Asset Management, Inc. may, but does not have to, extend the deadline for the submission of documentation upon your request. You can provide one of the following to Alliance Asset Management, Inc. as documentation. It is your choice which of the following to submit if Alliance Asset Management, Inc. asks you to provide documentation that you are or have been a victim of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

- A complete HUD-approved certification form given to you by Alliance Asset Management, Inc. With this notice, that documents an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. The form will ask for your name, the date, time, and location of the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, and a description of the incident. The certification form provides for including the name of the abuser or perpetrator if the name of the abuser or perpetrator is known and is safe to provide.
- A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial, or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency that documents the incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. Examples of such records include police reports, protective orders, and restraining orders, among others.
- A statement, which you must sign, along with the signature of an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, a medical professional or a mental health professional (collectively, “professional”) from whom you sought assistance in addressing domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse, and with the professional selected by you attesting under penalty of perjury that he or she believes that the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking are grounds for protection.
- Any other statement or evidence that Alliance Asset Management, Inc. has agreed to accept.

If you fail or refuse to provide one of these documents within the 14 business days, Alliance Asset Management, Inc. does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

If Alliance Asset Management, Inc. receives conflicting evidence that an incident of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking has been committed (such as certification forms from two or more members of a household each claiming to be a victim and naming one or more of the other petitioning household members as the abuser or perpetrator), Alliance Asset Management, Inc. has the right to request that you provide third-party documentation within thirty (30) calendar days in order to resolve the conflict. If you fail or refuse to provide third-party documentation when there is conflicting evidence, Alliance Asset Management, Inc. does not have to provide you with the protections contained in this notice.

CONFIDENTIALITY

Alliance Asset Management, Inc. must keep confidential any information you provide related to the exercise of your rights under VAWA, including the fact that you are exercising your rights under VAWA.

Alliance Asset Management, Inc. must not allow any individual administering assistance or other services on behalf of Alliance Asset Management, Inc. (for example, employees and contractors) to have access to confidential information unless for reasons that specifically call for these individuals to have access to this information under applicable Federal, State, or local law.

Alliance Asset Management, Inc. must not enter your information into any shared database or disclose your information to any other entity or individual. Alliance Asset Management, Inc., however, may disclose the information provided if:

- You give written permission to Alliance Asset Management, Inc. to release the information on a time limited basis.
- Alliance Asset Management, Inc. needs to use the information in an eviction or termination proceeding, such as to evict your abuser or perpetrator or terminate your abuser or perpetrator from assistance under this program.
- A law requires Alliance Asset Management, Inc. or your landlord to release the information.

VAWA does not limit Alliance Asset Management, Inc.'s duty to honor court orders about access to or control of the property. This includes orders issued to protect a victim and orders dividing property among household members in cases where a family breaks up.

REASONS A TENANT ELIGIBLE FOR OCCUPANCY RIGHTS UNDER VAWA MAY BE EVICTED OR ASSISTANCE MAY BE TERMINATED

You can be evicted and your assistance can be terminated for serious or repeated lease violations that are not related to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking committed against you. However, Alliance Asset Management, Inc. cannot hold tenants who have been victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking to a more demanding set of rules than it applies to tenants who have not been victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking.

The protections described in this notice might not apply, and you could be evicted and your assistance terminated, if Alliance Asset Management, Inc. can demonstrate that not evicting you or terminating your assistance would present a real physical danger that:

1. Would occur within an immediate time frame, and
2. Could result in death or serious bodily harm to other tenants or those who work on the property.

If Alliance Asset Management, Inc. can demonstrate the above, they should only terminate your assistance or evict you if there are no other actions that could be taken to reduce or eliminate the threat.

OTHER LAWS

VAWA does not replace any Federal, State, or local law that provides greater protection for victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. You may be entitled to additional housing protections for victims of domestic violence, sexual assault, or stalking under other Federal laws, as well as under State and local laws.

NON-COMPLIANCE WITH THE REQUIREMENTS OF THIS NOTICE

You may report a covered housing provider's violations of these rights and seek additional assistance, if needed, by contacting or filing a complaint with HUD's Manchester Field Office located at 275 Chestnut Street, 4th Floor, Manchester, NH 03101, (603) 666-7510.

ATTACHMENT: Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault or Stalking, form HUD-5382

Certification of Domestic Violence, Dating Violence, Sexual Assault, or Stalking, and Alternate Documentation

PURPOSE OF FORM: The Violence Against Women Act (“VAWA”) protects applicants, tenants, and program participants in certain HUD programs from being evicted, denied housing assistance, or terminated from housing assistance based on acts of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking against them. Despite the name of this law, VAWA protection is available to victims of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, and stalking, regardless of sex, gender identity, or sexual orientation.

USE OF THIS OPTIONAL FORM: If you are seeking VAWA protections from Alliance Asset Management, Inc., we may give you a written request that asks you to submit documentation about the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking. In response to this request, you or someone on your behalf may complete this optional form and submit it to Alliance Asset Management, Inc., or you may submit one of the following types of third-party documentation:

1. A document signed by you and an employee, agent, or volunteer of a victim service provider, an attorney, or medical professional, or a mental health professional (collectively, “professional”) from whom you have sought assistance relating to domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking, or the effects of abuse. The document must specify, under penalty of perjury, that the professional believes the incident or incidents of domestic violence, dating violence, sexual assault, or stalking occurred and meet the definition of “domestic violence,” “dating violence,” “sexual assault,” or “stalking” in HUD’s regulations at 24 CFR 5.2003;
2. A record of a Federal, State, tribal, territorial or local law enforcement agency, court, or administrative agency; or
3. At the discretion of Alliance Asset Management, Inc., a statement or other evidence provided by the applicant or tenant.
